

Amendments to the Claims:

Please amend claim 15, as follows

--15. (Three Times Amended) A computer in a desk module, comprising:

a desk body comprising a front panel, a back panel, opposite left and right side panels adjoining the front and back panels, and a bottom panel and a top system panel adjoining the front, back and opposite left and right side panels, said panels in combination defining an enclosed desk volume;

a desk top mounted for angular adjustment relative to said desk body and defining a writing surface, said writing surface defining a transparent region; elements of the computer disposed within said enclosed desk volume; and a computer display positioned for viewing at said transparent region.--

Please cancel claim 16.

Please amend claim 17, as follows:

--17. (Amended) The computer is a desk module of claim 15, wherein said desk top and said computer display are mounted for angular adjustment as a unit relative to said desk body.--

Please amend claim 26, as follows:

--26. (Twice Amended) The computer in a desk module of claim 15, wherein said computer display is mounted to remain at a fixed angular relationship to a plane of said writing surface.--
